

THREE-CENT LINE WINS IN COURT; IS TO RUN CARS

Justice Kelby Denies Brooklyn Rapid Transit's Petition for an Injunction.

Supreme Court Justice Kelby, sitting in Special Term, Brooklyn, denied this afternoon the application for an injunction restraining the Manhattan Three Cent Fare line from operating its cars across the Manhattan Bridge. In throwing out the application Justice Kelby has, for the time being at least, blocked the efforts of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company and its allied lines to maintain a monopoly of interborough traffic and prevent the Three Cent Fare line from doing business.

The Manhattan line has its cars all ready to operate and will begin at once to carry passengers over the Manhattan Bridge in accordance with the terms of the franchise granted by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment and the certificate issued by the Public Service Commission.

WIFE CHLOROFORMED, HUSBAND DETAINED ON ASSAULT CHARGE

West's Story That She Tried Suicide Not Accepted by Police.

Charged with felonious assault on his wife, Anna West, twenty-six years old, after first representing to the police that she had attempted suicide, Harvey West, thirty-two years old, who is employed at the Arbuckle stores on Jay street, was arraigned to-day in West Side Court.

Mrs. West is unconscious at the J. Hood Wright Hospital, where she was taken early this morning from the second floor of No. 180 West One Hundredth street. Her face and body showed signs of blows or bruises, but West told Police Officer Dolan of the West One Hundredth street station that she had tried to kill herself with chloroform and had broken a blood vessel and fallen in a fit of severe nausea.

Mrs. West has not been able to make a statement and the physicians are not certain whether she is threatened with chloroform poisoning. The container of the chloroform was found by the police in the middle of the street, and a quantity of the liquid had burned Mrs. West's lips, face and throat.

Mrs. West is a sister of Mrs. William H. Bailey, and the Baileys share the apartment with the Wests. The men had been on a picnic Monday, and it is said that relations between Mr. and Mrs. West have been a little strained since then. Bailey works for a Wall Street publication. Both men came home last night and the two families had supper together.

According to Bailey, he heard quarrelling in West's room, and then the sounds of a struggle, as if a body were being violently thrown against the door and walls. Shortly afterward, he says, West ran in and said his wife had taken chloroform in an attempt to commit suicide.

A charge of attempted suicide was lodged against Mrs. West, West being detained by the police as a precaution. Later, however, after Detective L'Houereux had made an investigation, the charge against Mrs. West was withdrawn and one of felonious assault made against the husband.

Mrs. West will recover. West has been ordered held for forty-eight hours without bail.

WALL STREET.

The early buying demand slackened in the afternoon and as a result prices assumed a slow dragging tendency that depressed the list to near the lowest of the day at closing time. Profit taking was heaviest in Union Pacific, Steel, Reading and Copper. Despite the late runoff net changes were irregular.
